Dear Mr. Harbin:

I take personal pleasure in thanking you for enabling our Executive Development Seminar to meet with you and Halliburton senior executives. The Seminar participants are intelligence officers judged to have high potential for executive responsibility. As such, they derived practical benefit from discussion of Halliburton's successful approaches to issues of corporate management and planning, personnel recruitment and motivation, and the special problems of operating worldwide. The candor with which you and your colleagues addressed these, as well as concerns regarding Government-corporate relations, made a significant contribution to our efforts at executive development. Please extend my thanks to Messrs. Thomas H. Cruikshank, B. G. Taylor, Hayden L. Hankins, and Stephen T. Delamater for their participation.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
